

A delightful tea and bathing party was given by Mrs. F. H. Humphris at the Moana Hotel on Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Lyde King, whose engagement to Mr. James Cockburn was announced in last Saturday's edition of this paper. Little tables prettily decorated with marigolds were set out on the lawn, and the tea was served under the trees, whose protecting branches sheltered the guests from the too fierce rays of the sun. Dr. Humphris presided over the punch-bowl, and personally superintended the making of the delicious concoction which the guests—especially the male portion—thoroughly appreciated. Miss King and her sister, Miss Adelaide King, looked very charming. They sailed for their home in Victoria, B. C. this week, but both the young girls expect to make Honolulu their residence in the near future. The guests lingered long upon the green and chatted until a late hour. It is really the most enjoyable part of the day from 4 until 7, the views on sea and land being particularly fine. Among the guests, besides the guest of honor, Miss King, were Rev. and Mrs. Usborne, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond de B. Layard, Mrs. F. M. Swanzy, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Lewton-Drain, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C. Deering, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. Hahn Combe, Mrs. J. H. Henshaw, Mrs. Brook Major and Mrs. Ben. Fuller, Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. Highton, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., Misses Tillie Neumann, Elsa Schaefer, Margaret and Blanche Soper, O'Meara, Anna Danford, Jessie Foreman, Adelaide King, Messrs. George Diles, James Cockburn, Jamieson Watson, McKinnon, Anderson, Derby, Sidney Ballou, Major Bluet, and Dr. Sheldon.

At Mrs. Alexander Scott's luncheon on Friday there were many novel and excellent dishes served. The salad dressing of the hostess is something to remember, for she is an adept in the art. Mrs. Scott's table was artistically arranged with flowers and greens, and a merry hour was spent in discussing the excellent menu. Mr. and Mrs. Scott expect to go to Maui in a few weeks, for Mr. Scott is to print some large pictures for a local millionaire. He has been very successful in his art, not only here but elsewhere. Just the other day a friend of mine received an enthusiastic letter from Scotland raving over two of

Mr. Scott's large pictures which had been sent out about a year ago. And, as for his patrons here, they never seem surfeited with his work. In fact, the Scotts have planned several times to leave the Islands for Mexico, but some important order always comes up—and they may be with us for some months yet. The luncheon guests of Mrs. Scott on Friday included Mrs. Clinton Ballentyne, Mrs. C. Hedemann, Mrs. John Rudolf Slattery, Mrs. Edward Watson and Mrs. Alexander Gilchrist Hawes, Jr.

Pol luncheon, a local form of entertainment most thoroughly enjoyed by visiting strangers, have been rather popular during the past week. Mrs. Cunha gave one for her sister, Mrs. McCloud, and needless to say everything was done perfectly. Among the guests were Mrs. Long, Mrs. Beckley, Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Roth, Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Cooper.

Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Murray entertained at dinner on Monday in honor of Captain Woodworth, a distinguished officer who took the Dewey to Manila. Mrs. Murray's table was charmingly decorated with American Beauty roses and maidenhair ferns. Among the guests were Hon. S. M. Parker and Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Roth, Mrs. Cunha and the Misses Campbell.

Mrs. Eben Low gave a pol luncheon on Friday in honor of her youngest child's first birthday. Their house is almost completed and presents a fine appearance, the stone foundation making a particularly good effect. Mr. Eben Low expects to go to his ranch next week. It is like a breath of fresh air to meet him, for he is as full of energy and good spirits as a boy of sixteen.

Mrs. Dreier celebrated the completion of her new house by a pol luncheon on Friday. It was an elaborate affair, most expensively gotten up. A quintet of singing boys gave addition pleasure to the guests.

What a delightful time the Editorial party has been enjoying! The town has simply opened its arms and given to them the best of everything. Dinners, teas, lunches, receptions, picnics and excursions have been showered upon them, and they are a delightful and appreciative set. The surfing seems to appeal directly to the younger set, as the most picturesque element of our pleasures and joys—and small wonder, for the surf has been particularly fine during the past few weeks. The young women of the party looked so very fetching the other day at the Moana in their natty bathing suits, and they can swim and dive, too.

The tea which Mrs. Mabel Wing Castle gave on Wednesday afternoon at "Kawekulu" was a very pleasant affair. Mrs. Castle was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Grace Wing Crockett, who poured tea and coffee, and Miss Anna Paris and Miss Eleanor Castle served the ice. The decorations of the tea table were red roses and maidenhair ferns, and in the living room were masterpieces in low bowls. Mrs. L. F. Doolittle of Los Angeles delighted the guests by singing. Among the guests were Messdames L. F. Doolittle, Frank Hoogs, W. R. Farrington, Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Emerson, President and Mrs. A. F. Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Fyler, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Marx, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Frazier, Mr. L. P. Tenny, Miss Moore, Mr. Paul Moore, Miss Winifred Martin, Miss Grace Tower, Miss A. J. Ingersoll, Dr. Carl Ramus.

Among the gentlemen chaffeurs who drove members of the Editorial party was Erlig Hademann, and those in his care speak volumes of praise for his knowledge of places and things.

A trip to the Orient may be taken in the near future by Mr. and Mrs. A. Hocking as they have already engaged passage on the Hongkong Maru.

Layard, whose Thursdays are very popular; and the ladies of Camp McKinley, who receive the first and third Tuesdays throughout the season. From 3 o'clock until 6 a bus meets the cars and conveys callers to the camp. Miss Jessie Kaufman also receives on Tuesdays at Sans Souci, beginning in October, and Mrs. C. Hedemann as well. People are beginning to return from Taitalia, and the other Islands and a very gay season is predicted. Princess Kawannakoa will begin her Thursdays in October, and when Mrs. Brinkerhoff is in the Williams house she will receive on Tuesdays, as usual.

Mrs. Clifford High has gone to Molokai as the guest of the Conrads for a month. The Conrads have a large ranch on Molokai and their guests are always well entertained.

The annual meetings for the election of officers of the Kunalu Rowing Club will take place on 21st of September.

A Japanese dinner served at the Mochizuki Club house at Waikiki on Tuesday evening was given the Editorial party by Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Gartley, Jr. There was a typical Japanese dinner and after the dinner dainty gushu girls danced for the delighted guests, and the genial Mr. C. Shiozawa explained each figure. The dinner favors were hand-painted fans and the menu cards depicted Japanese scenes in water colors. Among the guests were Captain and Mrs. Dismukes, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Low, Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle, Mr. and Mrs. Shiozawa, Mrs. Tinsley, Miss Isabelle Morgan, and Mr. Perkins.

The chafing dish dinner given at the Alexander Young hotel in the private dining room, on Sunday evening was a very dainty affair. Crisps, garnishes and silver candelabra with crimson shades made the table most attractive.

Mrs. Dyer of Wilder avenue gave a pretty little tea on Friday in honor of Mrs. Chalmers Graham.

Mrs. Porter, the charming wife of Captain Porter, now at the Moana hotel, is being much entertained.

Mrs. Thomas of Wahiawa is giving a house party for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hutchins entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening at their residence on Thurston avenue for Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle, and Mrs. Porter, wife of Captain Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Parker are going to their Peninsula home for a month.

On Monday evening in the private dining-room of the Young hotel Mr. Harry Cobb entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. James Spalding and Countess Senai. Pink carnations and pink ribbons formed the exquisite table decorations.

Mr. Dyer, of the Honolulu Iron Works, has been suite III at a sanatorium in the Orient. He is recovering and will soon return to Honolulu.

Mrs. Habbitt gave a fascinating children's party at the Seaside on Friday for her pretty little daughter, Elizabeth, in honor of her birthday. It was a pretty sight to watch the children playing their childhood games on the lawn and the "grown ups" enjoyed it as much as the youngest.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Macfarlane will be the guests of the Clarence Macfarlane at the Peninsula for a few weeks.

An informal little luncheon was given at the Seaside Hotel on Thursday by the Misses Smith, tourists in town. The table was prettily decorated with Mexican crocus and vines. Among the guests were Mrs. C. Hedemann, Mrs. Alexander Scott, Mrs. Clinton Ballentyne and Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr.

Miss Bertha Young and Mrs. James McNab, formerly Miss May Young who is visiting in Oakland from her home in Los Angeles, are to be special guests on Friday afternoon, when Mrs. J. Loran Pease entertaining a score of old friends at her home on Harrison street in their honor. Five hundred will furnish the hour's amusement, and a dainty supper will round out the day. Mrs. McNab was one of the most popular girls in the younger set, and since her return has been the motif for several delightful informal functions. "Rosecrest" has been the scene also of many happy reunions.—Call.

Miss Nannie Winston is expected on the 25th of the month. Miss Winston has been at her old home in Glen Allen, Virginia, for the past three months.

Mrs. Whiting, wife of Admiral Whiting was hostess at a large and quite elaborate bridge party this afternoon at her home in Berkeley, the guest of honor being Mrs. Isaac Upham. A number of well-known matrons and maids from San Francisco as well as Oakland and Berkeley were asked to meet Mrs. Upham, who has recently become a resident of Piedmont. Admiral and Mrs. Whiting have been living in Berkeley since the Admiral's retirement from the Navy. They have a charming home on the hills, commanding a fine view of the bay.—E. F. Bulletin.

One of the charming entertainments of the week was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hall in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O. Hall. It was a garden party and the grounds of the Hall are especially adapted for such affairs. It was an affair that reminded one of the old days in Honolulu. ## "SAVE-THE-HORSE" SPAVIN CURE

Wm. Larsen, Manager, SAN FRANCISCO NOVELTY LEATHER COMPANY, 412 Market Street, San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Sir:—I used your "Save-the-Horse" on two Splints, on inside of front legs, interfering with the cords of the leg and causing lameness so badly that a very short drive would make the horse act the "part of a cripple." After using two bottles the lameness is gone and the splints disappeared entirely. Yours truly, WM. LARSEN.

Costs from $5 to $25 for repeated firing, horse must be laid up for several months; not 5 per cent. of the cases are cured. Blistering is less effective. Mercurial preparations produce irreparable injury. "SAVE-THE-HORSE" eliminates all these factors. Cures without scar, bluish or loss of hair.

Feebly and permanently cured Spavin, Ringbone, Thoroughpin, Curb, Splint, Capped Hock, Wind Puff, broken down, bowed or strained tendon or any case of lameness. Horses can be worked as usual and with boots, as no harm will result from scalding of limb or destruction of hair. $5.00 per bottle, with a written guarantee, as binding to protect you as the best legal talent could make it.
